If you are not happy with the space assigned to you, you must return to the Registration table for a new assignment. Chalkers not in their assigned spots risk not being judged. Additionally, some businesses, while otherwise supporting this event, have elected not to have Chalkers in front of them. Please do not chalk in an area you have not been assigned.

A limited amount of additional chalk is available for registered chalkers who need more to complete their entries.

Outside chalk not provided by the Festival may not be used. This is for purposes of fairness and cleanup.
